2. It is necessary that [REDACTED] be excused from this tour of jury duty. He is the Administrative Officer of this division and at this time is acting for the Chief of Information Control for this division who is away from the office on extended sick leave. The situation is further complicated by the shortage of clerical personnel and vacancies which cannot be filled at this time. This shortage consists of approximately 50% of our clerical personnel. There is no person trained to assume [REDACTED] administrative duties and no person available to take over direction of the information control functions.
